Letter to the editorExpel cartel conspirators

JANUARY 29, 2025 / OPINION

It is my hope that there will be a complete expulsion of all people who have consorted with criminal gangs and drug cartels, including the de facto collaboration of the Biden Administration to illegally cross the borders of the United States. From Venezuela to the Congo, the very nature of their shameful and unlawful entry is an affront to every law-abiding American citizen. If indeed sanctuary cities, states and localities are operating in violation of the law – arrest, charge and prosecute them in accordance with the law, no more, no less. Remember this is the same cabal of virulent Trump haters that have been telling us for the past four years that “no one is above the law” while they hypocritically lie, conspire, and engage in lawfare against innocent American citizens.
